

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE NEWS

The Picture Shows the Results of the Bombardment of Westende, Belgium, by British Warships. All the Houses On Both Sides of This Street Were Torn to Pieces by Shells Sent From the Battleships

Aided by this Natural Fortress of Their Little Kingdom, the Montenegrins Have Put Up a Strong Resistance to the Attacks of the Foe in the World War. The View Shows a Field Gun in Action On a Mountain Peak.

A Study in Expression. This Is a German Military Dog Captured by the French, and Held in a Concentration Camp.

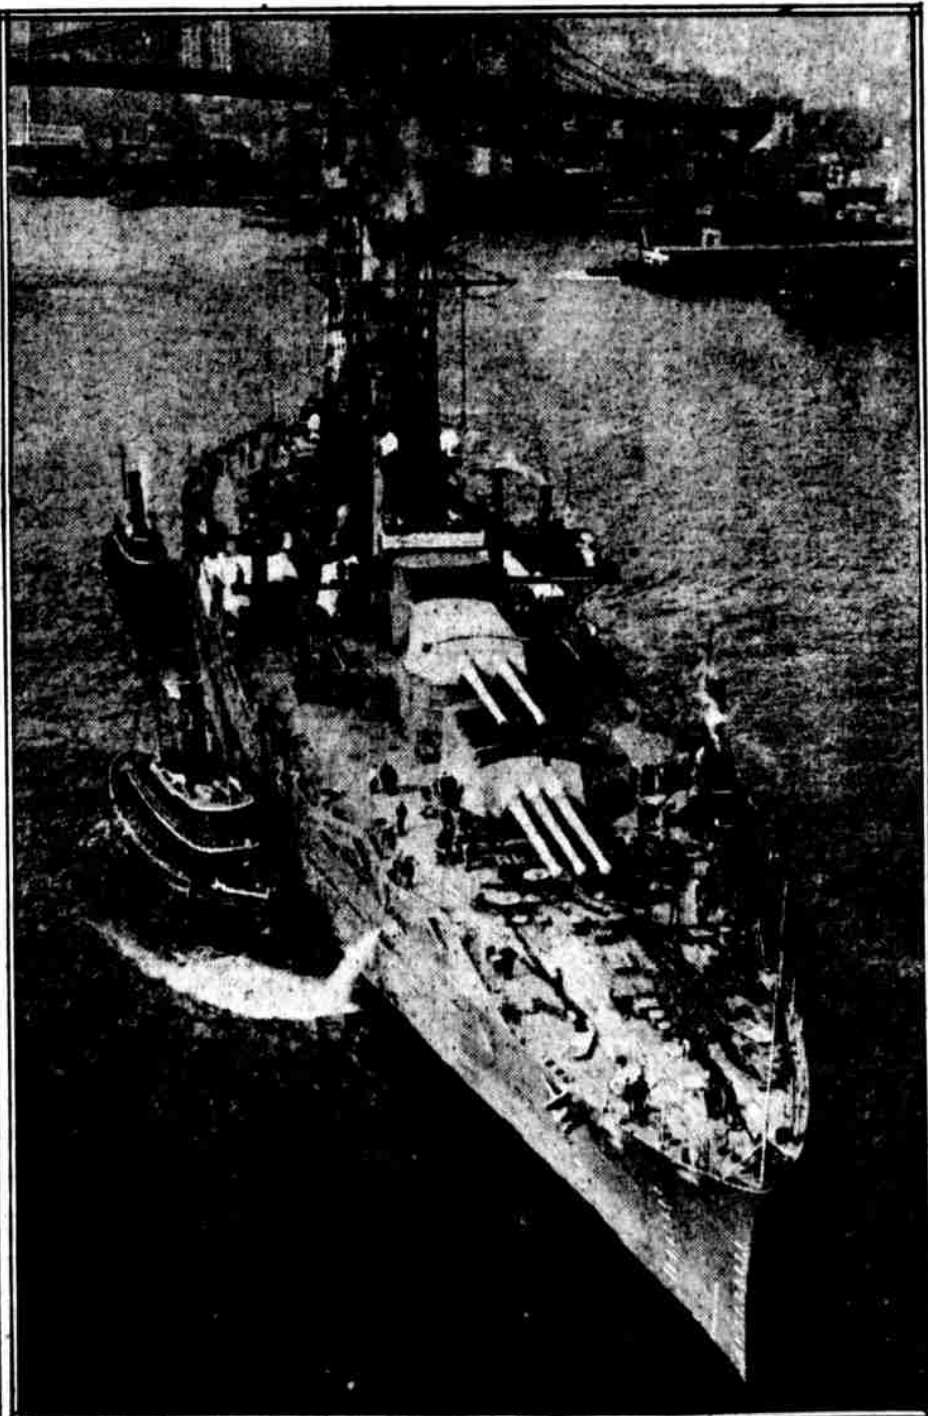

The Cost of War Is Plainly Apparent in the Scores of Ruined Castles in Belgium. The Picture Shows the Wreck of Castle Hallebeke, the Property of King Albert, Torn by German Shells.

Among the Charming Dress Creations at the French War Relief Fashion Fete at New York, Perhaps the Most Attractive Was the Pantalette Gold Gown Combination.

Mrs. BENJAMIN P. CHENEY, Jr. (Julia Arthur), Wife of the Boston Millionaire, Has Returned to the Stage in Leading Role in "Eternal Magdalene."

Keen Interest Is Being Manifested in Navy Circles in the Speed Performances of the Nevada, Uncle Sam's Biggest Fighting Ship. The Vessel Is 583 Feet Long and Displaces 27,500 Tons.

CAPTAIN REHORST, Manager of the Cologne Arts and Crafts Exhibit, Has Been Appointed by the Kaiser to Repair Damages Done to Architectural Treasures in Belgium by German Bombardments.

PHOTOS © BY UNDERWOOD AND UNDERWOOD